"The Center for Health Equity Transformation (CHET), Lexington Kentucky, is located on the original homeland of diverse Native peoples who arrived over 10,000 years ago. The most recent among them were the Shawnee. Today, Kentucky is still home to over 25,000 Native people representing scores of tribal groups. CHET recognizes the injustices Native peoples have endured. Through this statement, we hope to begin the long process of healing."

Adjustment for Race in Epidemiological Studies

UK Center for clinical and Translational Science

May 23, 2022

12:00-12:45pm

Registration

Required: <https://uky.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZMkduqhpjgtG9RI53OjCt7T826JuVBCNieL>

Dr. Meredith Duncan, CHET Biostatistics Core Coordinator, will present "Adjustment for Race in Epidemiological Studies" as part of the CCTS' Biostatistics, Epidemiology, and Research Design (BERD) Core Bringing Information and Training to Educate Scholars (BITES) Series.

Dr. Duncan will provide an overview of when and how to adjust for race and ethnicity as well as guidelines for choosing when it is appropriate to not adjust for race and ethnicity.

Kentucky Cancer Needs Assessment Released

The Kentucky Cancer Needs Assessment (KY CNA) is a comprehensive report from a steering committee of collaborative organizations, driven by the University of Kentucky Markey Cancer Center. The report – released every five years – combines data and community perspectives that illustrate how social determinants of health, behaviors and biology intersect to tell the current story of cancer in Kentucky and highlights opportunities to rewrite it.

You can read key findings here: <https://uknow.uky.edu/uk-healthcare/ky-cancer-needs-assessment-report-details-critical-steps-address-cancer-burden>

AAPI Heritage Month Events

Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage month continues through May 31st, and there are a variety of online events highlighting numerous aspects of AAPI culture. The Asia Society has developed a list of events taking place in May, including sessions on mental health and education scheduled for May 25th.

You can view the full list of virtual events here.
