"The Center for Health Equity Transformation (CHET), Lexington Kentucky, is located on the original homeland of diverse Native peoples who arrived over 10,000 years ago. The most recent among them were the Shawnee. Today, Kentucky is still home to over 25,000 Native people representing scores of tribal groups. CHET recognizes the injustices Native peoples have endured. Through this statement, we hope to begin the long process of healing."

CHET Director, Core Faculty Member, named to UK Research Leadership Academy

Congratulations to CHET Director Dr. Nancy Schoenberg and CHET Core Faculty Dr. Lovoria Williams who were recently named inaugural participants in the University of Kentucky Research Leadership Academy (RLA). This multi-component program is supported by the Office of the Vice President for Research, and has three independent tracks to accelerate the development of aspirational research leaders.

Dr. Lovoria Williams is participating in the Research Leadership Career Development track with a project entitled, "Community Health Worker Institute of Health Equity." Dr. Schoenberg is collaborating with colleagues in the Complex Programmatic Grant Proposals track on "UKFIRST: Building Inclusive Excellence through Sustained Transformative Culture Change and Evidence-Based Practices (NIH FIRST)." You can read more about the program here.

Congratulations Drs. Schoenberg and Williams!
